

Orientation Policy-Revised 2.29.06

Crowder's College Orientation course is required for all degree or certificate seeking students during their first enrolled semester excluding paramedic, waste water, and truck driving certificate programs. Transfer students who successfully completed college orientation with at "C" or better or cumulative grade point average of 2.0 satisfy the orientation requirement.