THE Family Conference to host Youth Mental Health First Aid Training

NEOSHO, MO – THE Family Conference, consisting of Crowder College’s Social Science Division and TRIO Programs, along with The Alliance of Southwest Missouri, will host training on Youth Mental Health First Aid, October 11, 2013, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., in the Wright Conference Center located in the Arnold Farber building on the Neosho campus.

Registration for the conference is available online at: www.crowder.edu/thefamilyconference. Conference registration is $49, which includes lunch. Continuing Education Units (CEU) are available through the University of Missouri and the Missouri Institute of Mental Health. More information regarding CEU’s can be found at: www.mimhtraining.com/mhfa-ceu-8-hour-adult/.

Youth Mental Health First Aid increases awareness and illustrates helpful ways to initiate help to young people showing signs of a mental illness or in a crisis and connects them with the appropriate professionals, peer, social, or self-help care. Anyone can take the 8-hour Youth Mental Health First Aid course, but it is ideally designed for adults who work with young people, ages 12-18 – teachers, coaches, leaders of faith communities, social workers, and other caring citizens.
